

The Netbook with a Split-Personality

Chris Osborne – Senior Product Manager

The all new Acer Aspire 10.1"

Small, Smart and Sexy is here in the form of a 10.1" Aspire One D255 netbook. It's Sexy and Smart both inside and out, with a styled up exterior that boasts an edge to edge gloss cover front AND back,

But be careful, the Aspire One D255 has a split personality!! It features a dual-booting operating systems with Windows 7 Starter and Google Android, making connectivity easier and faster. Boot to Android for fast access to all your favourite internet applications, or to Windows 7 when you need to crunch some numbers.

Key Feature and Benefits:

- Ultra-lightweight (from 1.11kg) for go-anywhere mobility
- 93% of standard size keyboard
- Lower power consumption
- Up to 30% improvement on graphics performance
- Up to 15% improvement on processor and system performance
- Intel® N450 Atom™ processor — built with the world's smallest transistors
- 10.1" WSVGA Acer CrystalBrite™ TFT LCD with 1024 x 600 pixel resolution
- Multi-in-1 card reader for convenient file sharing
- Cutting-edge wired/wireless connectivity for reliable communication
- Incredibly low idle power consumption
- Preinstalled with Internet-based applications
- Office 2010 Starter (comes with unlimited use of MS Word and Excel with some usage restrictions)
- Acer Crystal Eye webcam with enhanced Acer PrimaLite™ technology

Visit APeC, AcerLink or our website at www.acer.com.au for more information.

acer